

Alaska Public Media Leadership Circle Frequently Asked Questions

The Leadership Circle recognizes individuals, couples, families and businesses with the vision and desire to support Alaska Public Media in a substantial way: those who know that excellence never happens by accident, that it takes careful planning, dedicated effort, and the commitment of charitable donors.

How can I become a part of the Alaska Public Media Leadership Circle?

- A cumulative donation of $1,000 or more within a calendar year qualifies you as a Leadership Circle member.
- A summary of your donations for tax purposes is sent to you each January.

What are the giving levels of the Leadership Circle?

- Leadership Circle Patrons $1,000-$2,499
- Leadership Circle Advocates $2,500-$4,999
- Leadership Circle Visionaries $5,000-$9,999
- Leadership Circle President's Society $10,000+

What are the benefits of membership in the Alaska Public Media Leadership Circle?

- Satisfaction in knowing that you are helping ensure that trusted, unbiased, authentic, in-depth, commercial-free public radio and television programming continues in Alaska.
- Listing in our annual report (with your permission).
- On-air acknowledgment of your support on KSKA (with your permission) as a Leadership Circle Member.
- On-air acknowledgement of your support of Alaska Public Media television (with your permission) with annual gifts of $5,000 or more.
- Your day on KSKA – your approved message aired five times during one KSKA broadcast day during the calendar year. You may use your message to recognize a birthday, anniversary, graduation, or special event. Go to alaksapublic.org/support/kskaday/ to reserve your day.
- Station tour of the Alaska Public Media facilities upon request.
- Invitations to special events at the station and in the community, as available. Unless otherwise stated, these events are complimentary – in appreciation of your strong support of Alaska Public Media.

What are the advantages of becoming a Sustaining Leadership Circle Member?

- Leadership Circle members may also be Sustaining Members. Sustaining Members agree to make an ongoing monthly or quarterly donation as a pledge of support. Your donations can be charged automatically to your credit or debit card and will automatically continue unless you request otherwise.
- Sustaining Membership automatically renews each year, eliminating renewal notices and reducing Alaska Public Media's mailings and phone calls. Changes or cancellation can be made at any time simply by calling 550-8400.